pened for inspection during the after-

of the building, who were special of henor. The laboratory was a for inspection during the afteright there was a presentation by the Dramatic Association of "Robin erwood," on the Yale campus, an ur performance. It was the work of the Sheffield die school faculty. The baccate address will be delivered by the address will be delivered by the continuation of the Sheffield on Tuesday afternoon and during the parade out there.

In the provide the school faculty in the costumes will be delivered by this class will be the number of queer stunts that they will pull off at the field on Tuesday afternoon and during the scene of the whopping Harvard dinner of the night before they split up into classes with separate tables for each class and had a series of class reunions inside of one tremendous gathering of the university.

The voyage of the 1.144 up the Hudson on the steamboat Trojan began at 10 of clock in the morning. A band on the parade out there. To-night there was a presentation by the Dramatic Association of "Robin Sherwood," on the Yale campus, an will take place Monday morning At noon on Monday there will be a meetof the Yale Corporation. There was be present at this meeting, but the ficials do not believe he will be able to come to this commencement on account of the Republican national con-

other important happenings on Monday will include the annual dinner of the Yale Law School Alumni Associam at 12:30 P. M., and the class day tercises of the academic department. with the class history, oration and poem on the college campus, followed by the planting of the class ivy. At 3 P. M. Will-iam B. Hornblower of New York city will deliver the address to the graduating class of the law school. Prof. Henry Herbert Donaldson of Wistar Institute of Anatomy and Biology in Philadelphia will deliver the principal address before the Yale ical school at 5 P. M.

There will be a concert on the evening Monday by the combined glee, mandelin and banjo clubs in Woolsey Hall after that concert will come the omenade of the senior class. nder the joint auspices of the Phi ta Kappa and Sigma Xi there will be meeting on Tuesday morning in Battell Prof. William Lyon Phelps will es of current college interest will be elivered by seniors in the academic and centific departments and by Prof. Henry Turner Eddy, '27 and '68S., dean of the graduate school of the University of Minnesota. At this meeting will be anounced for the first time the high scholashonors for the work of the entire arse in the senior classes of the college and Sheffield Scientific School. James Battell Chanel at 10:30 A. M.

Sheffield, '87, of New York city will reside at the general alumni meeting ors have been heretofore held, having may been heretofore held, laving the past year to make from for the new Dean Wright dorminory.

It was a continue the past year to make from the heavy may be the past of the year work at the other of the year work at the university of the Year work at the was a first of the year wo regular reunion dinners will all oplace on Tuesday night. The annual funtes of the class of the second interest of the sec

A number have already names on the list of stunts. ett. '79, of this city is chairto meet the situation than three minutes in the neighact of the strangling undergraduate thins. This year the campus will aced in and the public fenced out.
Tasses will be expected by 10 o'clock at their wigwams, which novel their wigwams, which novel
their wigwams, which novel
their will mark the class headters and will otherwise cover a multistival led by some of the old fence which goal posts will be erected end of the campus. The un porities have agreed to all ress and future repetitions of it pend on how the classes conduct lives and conduct it. There will astriction to the enjoyment of this alumni occasion. It is the grad-night and the university officials ordially withdraw from the use of Wednesday is commencement and so to Newport.

Mrs. William D. Learner of the wastern of the received and will soon afterward to to Newport.

Mrs. William D. Learner of the wastern of the wastern of the wastern of the received at the Plaza, has returned to her home in wastington. D. C.

Mrs. William D. Learner of the wastern of the was

YALE MISSES TAFT AS

COMMENCEMENT BEGINS

District formal cycles will be fore 10 A. M. There will be a march around the campus and thence from the woolsey Hall, where the commencement procession. At the concentration of the Vale Corporation will head this commencement procession. At the content exercises will be delivered attent the content exercises will be delivered attent the content exercises will be delivered attent the content of the vale Corporation will assemble on the university campus a little before 1 o'clock and will then march into the university dining half of speeches will be delivered attent the content of the speeches will be delivered attent the content of the speeches will be delivered attent the content of the speeches will be delivered attent the content of the great speeches will be attent the content of the great speeches will be a President Hadley in Woolsey Hall tomorrow merning and at 5 P. M. there will be an organ recital for the commencement guests in Woolsey Hall by Prof.

Jepson.

parade out there.

Among the "Sheff" reunion classes the members of 19.6 have also gone to the Catskills bounced back the echoes and the folk along the river cheered. The back sixty strong as big Turks. The costume color scheme will be black and up to the campus amid the popping of

STRANSKY TO WED AMERICAN.

Philharmonic Conductor Chooses

New York Girl for Wife. Word was received here yesterday of he approaching marriage of Josef Stransky, the conductor of the New York Philherrud, a young New Yorker and the daughter Capt. Doxrud of the Red Star liner The wedding, which is to take Lapland. place in London on June 24, is the result of an acquaintance which began only after Mr S.ransky's arrival in this country at the beginning of the season which has just Society at Tuxedo Park.

TUNEDO PARK, N. Y. June 15.

ord that any graduate who has some Ralph Cross Johnson and Miss Johnson of Will be offered an opportunity with the Rev. and Mrs. George William boughts.

Among the late arrivals to-day were George P. Deveau, Mr. and Mrs. Henry D. Whitfield, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel T. Worden. the committee.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward A. Leroy. fr. Mr. and June 15.—To-day was appointed in Hamilton on Tuesday night that promises M. Jay. Mrs. William Douglas, Frederick day and it found 550 out of a total roll of every Yale man back to this computer. The Alumni Weekly states is Tuesday night affair has here—Miss Edward L. Burrill, Miss Beatrice Burrill, Italy was been by a god way. Last veer, Mrs. G. Andreae, Theodore F. Maxfield, Mrs. C. held in the charel. The meeting was Mr. and Mrs. Edward A. Leroy, Jr., Mr. an of producing a play failed S. Hacket, William E. Marcus, Jr., Mr. and meet the situation. Not only Mrs. Josiah M. Bayden, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. I the available seats in the senior Hayden, Jr., B. T. Barlow, Samuel W. Barmphitheatre gobbled up by the inbatants before the men arrived, and Erskine, Howard Stade, A. D. Henry, red fire and other combustibles the Rev. and Mrs. Robert S. W. Wood, Mr. Malesander, Miss.

Mrs. Elmer E Black and Miss Dorothy Black left yesterday for Chicago to remain

Mr. and Mrs. John Reynolds Totten, who sailed yesterday on the Olympic, will re main in Europe for several months. Charles M. Fleischmann, who will marry

Miss Alice Dumont Foote on June 29 in Morristown, will give his farewell bachelor dinner to-morrow night at Delmonico's. The Duke of Sutherland will arrive to-day om Montreal and will be at the Ritz-Cari-

Mrs. William B. Leeds will arrive from lough. The score for the six innings that were played was 10 to 9.

The polo players of the Harvard team were J. H. Hunt, A. C. Smidt, H. W. Tweed, L. J. Hunt and F. H. Kinnicutt. The West Pointers were Lieut. Dodd. Lieut. Herr, Capt. Allin, Lieut. Zell and Lieut. Higley. The score was 71 to 124 in West Point's favor. Harvard, be it said, rode, points begrowed from the said, rode ponies borrowed from the army men.

As the Trojan slid down the river in the evening some of Harvard's amateur prodigies gave a pickup vaudeville per-formance in the main saloon. The cap-tain of that team was Arthur J Garceau, '91, and the first mate was Kay Wood of 91, and the first mate was kay wood of Chicago, '92.

So far as could be learned the dean of the graduates, who sat down to the combination dinner and smoker which greeted the hourse company at the Astor, when the Trojan got back from West Point was Magistrate Peter P. Barlow of the class of 1852. At least '82 was Gathering is Presided Over by Senator Eliha Root.

HAMILTON COLLEGE, via Clinton, N. Y. June 15. To-day was appointed in Ham-classes appeared in costume.

The annual meeting of the alumni was held in the chapel. The meeting was called to order by Senator Elihu Root, '64, as president R. C.S. Drummond of Auburn as president R. C.S. Drummond of Auburn presented the report of the alumni council, which was accepted. The society then elected as new members of the council W. B. Gilbert, '89, of Albany, N. A. Shaw. '22, of New York, James Burton, '80, of Cooperstown; A. F. Newton, '04, of Utica; C. L. Mosher of Albany, F. W. Welch, '92, of Binghamton; C. H. Stone, '78, of Corpewall, and F. D. Briggs of New York.

The new officers were chosen as follows: President, Judge Abel E. Blackmar, '74, of Brooklyn; vice-presidents, G. F. Lyon, '72; the Rev. W. A. Bartlett, '52; the Rev. L. R. Grover, '81; the Rev. James Hoadley, '70; F. O. Locke, '64, and W. E. Burton, '66. The executive committee will be composed of Messrs. Fitch, Stryker, Scollard, Ibbotson and Hull. Stryker, Scollard, Ibbotson and Hull. Stryker, Scollard, Ibbotson and Hull. The half century annalist's letter was read. The half century annalist is letter and rea Hoadley. '70, F. O. Locke, '64, and W. E. Burton, '66. The executive committee will be composed of Messrs. Fitch, Stryker, Scollard, Ibbotson and Hull. The half century annalist's letter was read by C. W. Cole, '62 of Albany. Prof. Arthur S. Hoyt of Auburn Theological Seminary was elected alumni trustee.

In the afternoon President Stryker held a general reception at his home. The ladies of the receiving line were Mrs. Stryker, Mrs. James S. Sherman, Mrs. Elihu Root, Jr., and Mrs. Goss L. Stryker, Vice-President Sherman was present.

Vice-President Sherman was present. Rainy weather put a damper on the out-door exercises of the evening, but there was singing on the campus and the il-luminations were made as had been luminations were made as had been planned. The only event of Sunday is the baccalaurreate sermon of the class of 1912

MISS GELSHENEN WEDS.

Daughter of Mrs. Henry J. Braker Married to Mr. Rafferty.

Miss R. Cerinne Gelshenen, a daughter Beat West Point on Diamond, Lose at Polo and Then Gather at Hotel Astor.

Miss R. Cerinne Gelshenen, a daughter by a former marriage of Mrs. Henry J. Braker, was married to Charles D. Rafferty, a son of Mr. and Mm. Gilbert T. Rafferty of Pittsburg, in the Lady Chapel of St. Patrick's Cathedral yesterday afternoon. The ceremony was performed by Mgr. Matthew A. Taylor of the Church of the Blessed Sacrament. On account of mourning relatives only were present for mourning relatives only were present for the ceremony.

The bride entered the church with her brother, William H. Gelshenen. She wore a travelling costume of pale green flowered slik with a bouquet of orchids fastened at the corsage. Her hat was a lexhorn trimmed with French made wild flowers. There were no attendants.

Mr. Rafferty was captain of the 1904 Yale football team and was an all American end. After the ceremony he took his bride to Alexandria Bay, Thousand Islands, where his father owns an island. Mr. and Mrs. Rafferty will live in this city.

WEDDINGS.

Ridgway-Wayne.

PHILADELPHIA, June 15.-Miss Edith Wayne, daughter of William Wayne of Paoli, and who at the time of the marriage of Miss Margaretta Drexel to the Viscount Maidstone was pronounced by the English press as the most beautiful American that was ever seen in England, this afternoon became the bride of Thomas Ridgway. son of Mr. and Mrs. John Ridgway. The bride of to-day was the only American bridesmaid at the Maidstone-Drexel

The ceremony this afternoon was formed at Chestnutwood, the Torresdale home of the bride's aunt, Mrs. Samuel Elizabeth Dale Phillips as maid of honor John Kearsley Mitchell 3d was Mr. Ridg

Following the marriage ceremony, which was performed by the Rev. Horace A. Wal-ton, rector of the Church of the Good Sa-maritan of Paoli, there was a reception "There are or will be the famous of the later sizes of the late dustice Brown of the same court is also a member. Yate Corporation. There was excitation that President Taforners of the late dustice Brown of the same court is also a member. Yate Corporation attimeted the bears of the late dustice Brown of the same court is also a member. As it is include the annual dinner and Law School Alumni Association. There will be for the class of the same department, class history, oration and poems of the academic department, class history, oration and poems class a many college campus, followed by the off the class ivy. At 3 P. M. Will. Hornblower of New York city.

STRANSKY TO WED AMERICAN.

Direkt, true proposition and will be the commandant, the commandant of the key billower of New York city.

The class of the late of the class of the late state of the class of the late of the class of the late of the class of the late of the class of the clas Mrs. C. P. Read, as matron of honor. Mrs. female parts are still usually played by Read's little daughter, Aimee Henrietta Read, was flower girl. Mayland Wheeler Rend, was flower girl. Mayland Wheeler was the page. Harold Milbank, brother of the bridegroom, was best man. The ushers were Caswell Barrie, Dr. Clarynee C. Coryell, Dr. Elliott Wagstaff Lawrence and Dr. John Dodge Peters. Miss Weatherbee was given in marriage by her brother, Hicks Arnold Weatherbee. Following the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served at Wayles Court, the Weatherbee mansion at Orienta Point. The bride is an expert whip and has won many prizes at the New York and Westchester horse shows.

Gillette—Dickie.

Albrox, Mich., June 15.—The marriage of Miss Mary, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Samuel Dickie, to Alvin E. Gillette of New York city took place this afternoon at the Dickie residence in this city, Dr. Ames A.

Hengkong we attended a performance in the English speaking theatre. The company was an organization from San Francisco, and the bill comprised a number of old Weber & Fields skits. We also attended a native theatre. The art of the Chinese is far behind that of Japan, and the makeup of the actors is almost hideous. No women are employed in the coats.

"In Itangoong we attended a performance in the English speaking theatre. The company was an organization from San Francisco, and the bill comprised a number of old Weber & Fields skits. We also attended a native theatre. The art of the Chinese is far behind that of Japan, and the makeup of the actors is almost hideous. No women are employed in the coats.

"In Itangoong we attended a performance in the English speaking theatre. The theory we have a native theatre. The art of the Chinese is far behind that of Japan, and the makeup of the actors is almost hideous. No women are employed in the coats.

"In Itangoon and theatre. The with hide actors is almost hideous. No women are employed in the store, got a job in the Parker House. In 1875 he left the Parker House and number of old Weather & Fields skits.

We also attended a native theatre. The actors is almost hideous. No women are employed in the actors is almost hideous. No women are employed Point was Magistrate Peter P. Bariow of the class of 1852. At least '62 was the most remote class that waved its numerals among all the tuneful groups of alumni that sat beneath a Harvard banner that covered the whole east side that covered the whole east side Music and were active in college social.

After graduating here the bride of the balcony.

There was no speaking, no programme of any kind, no evening dress just 1.144 spen fifteen months in Germany in study, and a few hundred more Harvard men eating and drinking and volleying from class to class the Harvard cheers.

At the corner where sat the class of 1898 there arose a man who still seems coltish and shouted "A cheer for '58." And all be beganning to be bridged and speaking in London, has been given melodrama in London, has been given over to any other purpose. An entire over to any other purp

Graham-Baker.

GREENWICH, Conn., June 15. Miss Persis Baker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin H. Baker of Putnam Hill, and Samuel raham, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Graham of Belle Haven, were married this afternoon in the presence of a thousand guests at the Second Congregational Church. The cere mony was performed by the Rev. Dr. Austin B. Bassett of Hartford, who baptized the bride in infancy. The maid of honor was Miss Raynolds of New York, the matron the bridesmaids Miss Thompson of New the bridesmaids Miss Thompson of New Haven, Miss Benham of Pittsburg, Miss Guerly of Chicago. The flower girls were Misses Elizabeth Hyde and Virginia Pratt. The best man was Mr. Tennant of Buffalo, and Fred Leake of New York, Wilbur Topping, Henry Topping, Howard Baker and Joseph Graham were ushers. A large reception followed at the bride's home.

Ford-Zapiola.

BETHLEHAM, Pa., June 15 .- A marriage

Flaherty-Bradley.

PHILADELPHIA, June 15. James Flaherty, Supreme Knight of the Knights of Columbus of the United States, Canada and the insular possessions, and Miss Mary Bradley, for several years a public stenographer at whose office Mr. Flaherty

COL. SAVAGE IS HOME; PLANS GLOBE CIRCUIT

Theatrical Manager Says the Far East Wants Amusements, Needs Theatres.

EUROPEAN STAGE

London Will See

tine Pietrow in 1907.

The Lawrence chemical prizes were awarded to Eugene Berry of Putney, Vt. first, and George A. Silger, Jr., of Syracuse, second. This prize is maintained by G. O. Lawrence of Bienos Ayres. Honorable and a world of interesting experiences to relate, arrived on the Lusitania yesterday after going around the world by way of Japan. China. the Philippines. India. Vienna. London and Paris. He took the journey as a plain American on a holiday, but with his eyes and ears always open. The Lake way seems and the political science of Pizze.

The Lawrence chemical prizes were awarded to Eugene Berry of Putney, Vt. first, and George A. Silger, Jr., of Syracuse, second. This prize is maintained by G. O. Lawrence of Bienos Ayres. Honorable of Auburn for his work in this examination. The Laker essay prizes were awarded to William A. Onderdonk of Adams Center and to Elmer M. Benedict of Syracuse. We was submissed by George W. Lasher, D. D., class of 1857, to be awarded to two members of the junior class for excellence in English composition.

The Allen essay prizes were won by Ray L. Merrill of Malone and William W. Eaton of Hamilton. These are offered to the George W. Lasher, D. D. Class of 1857, to be awarded to two members of the junior class for excellence in English composition.

Clarence H. Thurber of Brattleboro, Vt. won the Frisbie scholarship prize for athletes.

At a meeting of the faculty to-day the class of 1850 and their daughter, Baroness and will remain for the early summer. Later they will go, as is their custion, to their estate in Austria. by T. Daniel Frawley, who has taken stock companies on around the world tours

In of hours while sunning himself on the deck of the steamship crossing the Mickle Fox. It was a quiet affair, being Pacific Mr. Savage thought seriously of attended only by relatives and a few close the possibility of an "Around the World friends. The bride was attended by Miss Theatrical Circuit," by which a manager could send his successful productions to Honolulu, Yokohama, Tokio. Manila. Singapore, Rangoon, and then through the Suez back by the European capitals

"There are Americans and Europeans at which all Philadelphia society was in all along the circuit craving for enter-attendance. tainment," said Mr. Savage, "and the Orientals themselves are generous patrons of amusements. All that is necessary is theatres

"In Japan the pantomime performance are wonderful. I saw theatres crowded to their capacity where not a word was spoken, men and women being held spellbound and moved to tears by the marvellous silent mimicry. So clean cut and Weatherbee, and Dr. Samuel Milbank were married at noon to-day in S. Thomas's cameolike is the work of these mimic Profestant Episcopal Church by Dean artists that words are entirely unnecessary. Grosvenor, rector of the Church of St. John The stage is in a flourishing condition in the Divine, assisted by the Rev. Dr. Lubert Japan, but their kleas are of little value of Manhattan and the Rev. Frank F. Gerto America or Europe except in the matter to America or Europe except in the matter of pantomine. Actors are highly es-teemed there and when they appear upon the late James M. Constable, and his children teemed there and when they appear the late James M. Constable, and his children the streets many of the more popular day for an operation for cancer of the as a memorial to Mrs. Constable. Miss the streets many of the more popular day for an operation for cancer of the stomach. He was 70 years old. Boston first Weatherbee was attended by her sister, ones have a following of retainers. The knew Mr. Whipple in 1860, when at 18 he

"At Hengkong we attended a perform-

On his way home Mr. Savage stopped in London long enough to conclude arrangements with Arthur Collins for the production in Drury Lane in September of Walter Browne's "Everywoman." This will be the first time in forty years that the theatre, which is the home of spectacular melodrama in London, has been given over to any other purpose. An entire English production of "Everywoman" will be made. Sketches and models are now being made by the celebrated Comelli.

Battell Chapel at 10:39 A. M.
Old Alumni Hall, where all these meetmake have been heretofore held, having the social events scheduled for the day, may house parties with lunchmeen razed during the past year to make moom for the new Dean Wright dormitory.

There were many house parties with lunchmoom for the new Dean Wright dormitory.

Whereupon '8s reciprocated, and more at the club afmore and solving the past year to make moom for the new Dean Wright dormitory.

Whereupon '8s reciprocated, and more at the club afmore and solving the past year to make moom for the new Dean Wright dormitory.

Whereupon '8s reciprocated, and more at the club afmore and solving the past year to make more at the club afmore and solving the past year to make more and solving the past year to make more at the club afmore and solving the past year to make more and solving the past year to make more and solving the past year to make more at the club afmore and solving the later went to New York city, where he more and solving the later went to New York city, where he may house parties with lunchmore and solving the later went to New York city, where he may house parties with lunchmore and solving the later went to New York city, where he may house parties with lunchmore and solving the later went to New York city, where he may house parties with lunchmore and solving the later went to New York city, where he may house contracted with Mine Savage contracted with where Else," the new whimsical musical The couple production by Avery Hopwood and Gustave Luders, which will te the first of his new attractions to be seen in New York early in the season. "Somewhere Else" will be the most sumptuously mounted play which has ever come from the Savage workshop, developing an absolutely new idea, which will require ried to Alex.

Where Else," the new whimsical musical musical for Philadelphia in 1876.

Clarence F. Carrell.

BOSTON. June 15.—Clarence F. Carrell of Marblehead died suddenly in Warner, N. H., yesterday of cerebral hemorrhage foilowing an attack of acute indigestion. Mr. Carrell of Marblehead died suddenly in Warner, N. H., yesterday of cerebral hemorrhage foilowing the Savage workshop, developing an attack of acute indigestion. Mr. Carrell of Marblehead died suddenly in Warner in Acute in Marblehead died suddenly in Warner, N. H., yesterday of cerebral hemorrhage foilowing the Savage workshop, developing an attack of acute indigestion. Mr. Carrell of Marblehead died suddenly in Warner, N. H., yesterday of cerebral hemorrhage foilowing the Savage workshop, developing an attack of acute indigestion. Mr. Carrell of Marblehead died suddenly in Warner, N. H., yesterday of cerebral hemorrhage foilowing the Savage workshop, developing an attack of acute indigestion. Mr. Carrell of Marblehead died suddenly in Warner, N. H., yesterday of cerebral hemorrhage foilowing the Savage workshop, developing an attack of acute indigestion. Mr. Carrell of Marblehead died suddenly in Warner, N. H., yesterday of cerebral hemorrhage foilowing the Savage workshop with the most sumptionally and the most sumpti Savage's attractions next season companies will be organized. One tour the West and the Pacific coast the other the principal cities of the East. There will also be two companies playing "The Million," and "Little Boy Blue" will begin its season in Boston in September.

"There is little or no foreign material the Continent this season than ever be-fore, and there is only one big success on the London stage. With the lack of foreign material the American author looms big on the theatrical horizon. The English and Continental managers are looking to American authors for meterial and I am sanguine of the success of "Everywoman" in London and "Excuse Me" in Paris. Next year I will plan to produce several American plays in Eng-land and on the Continent."

Wilson-Lambeth.

Ruth Lambeth, daughter of Mrs. William C. Lambeth of 13 Lincoln street, East Orange, and Kenneth Tucker Wilson, also of East Orange, were married to-night Church. The rector, the Rev. Charles T. Walkey performed the ceremony bride was given in marriage by her uncle J. Stevenson Lambeth of New York. maid of honor was Miss Ethel May W sister of the bridegroom. The brides maids were Miss Leonora Keeney of Spring-field, Mass., and Miss Marjorie Persons of Boston. Wilson Hatch Tucker of Montelair. A cousin of the bridegroom, was best man. The ushers were Charles F. Pope of New York, a cousin of the bridggroom: Charles Crowell and Samuel Hollis of New York city. Charles Warren of Hurley, N. Y. Aubrey C. Lambeth, brother of the bride, and Wheelock H. Pooler of East Orange. A reception followed the ceremony.

EAST ORANGE, N. J. June 15.—At the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edward W. Coffin, 55 Burnett street, their daughter, Miss Marian Louise Coffin, was married to-night to Mary Bradley, for several years a public stenographer at whose office Mr. Flaherty had the greater part of his work done, were married this morning at St. Teresa's Church by Father Vasey. Miss Alice Bradley, sister of the bride, was maid of honor and M. J. McHenry was best man. The best man was Emmet McQuinn of New-Castle. The ceremony was following their honeymoon the couple will be at home at 1718 Girard avenue.

COLGATE UNIVERSITY.

Winners of the Several Prizes-18

HAMILTON, N. Y., J. 80 15. The announce ment of the winners of the several prize examinations was made at Colgate Uni-versity to-day by President B. Regan. e Edgar C. Smith of Troy won the Baldwin Greek prize. Clarence Castimore of Wayerly was second. This prize examination was established by H. P. Baldwin D. D., class of 18%, Logansport.

Two prizes were awarded to students for excellence in German. The winners were Harry Walltropp of College Point and Robert E. Vaughn of Portville. These prizes were established by the late Valenine Pietrow in 1967.
Freeman A. McIntyre of Argyle won the class of 1911 history and political science

At a meeting of the faculty to-day the names of eighteen men were recommended o Phi Beta Kappa for membership. The names were passed on in a meeting of the lociety held shortly after and include the names were passed on in a meeting of the society held shortly after and include the following men:

Julius Houseman Amberg of Grand Rapids, Mich., Samuel Dwight Arms, Jr., of Syracuse: Clarence A. Costimore of Waverly, Ambrose Augustine Clerg of Brooklyn. Sherman Harold Conrad of Atlantic City. N. J.: Charence Sheldon Dike of Lake Placid, Maurice H. Esser of Brooklyn, Harry Spencer Jones of Stitt-ville, Samuel Kaplan of Brooklyn, Edward Walker Leonard of Auburn, Hiram Ward Walker Leonard of Auburn, Hiram Ward Megraw of Hamilton, Philo Woodworth Parker of Morrisville, Arthur John Rider of Hamilton, Edgar Charles Smith of Trov. Lee Brown Smith of Waterloo, Iowa, Albert Edward Stone of Mattapan, Mass.; Marion Ernest Townsend of Hammondsport and Walter Elwood Wilcox of Mystic, Conn.

To-morrow afternoon on the campus the seniors will hold a vesser service. President Bryan will speak and impressive exercises have been arranged. The undergraduate body have been invited to attend. The baccalaureate sermon will be preached to the graduating class to-morrow morning in the Baptist church by Dr. Andrews.

OBITUARY.

left New Hampshire and came to Boston. In that year he opened a grocery store with his brother James. This proved a fallure and when James went back to the farm J. Reed, after selling out the store, got a job in the Parker House.

In 1878 he left the Parker House and with George G. Hall bought Young's Hotel. When the new Adams House was completed one of the commissioners appointed by Gen.

Grant to organize the Centennial Exposition in Philadelphia in 1876.

Clarence F. Carroll.

The Netherlands Minister and Minister and Single.

Loubon are in their Durch home for the summer, and the charge d'affaires, Mr. Schmolck, will be at Bar Harbor.

The Minister from Denmark and Countess Moltke are now at Lancester. in Philadelphia in 1876

Jimmy Powers closed an eight weeks run in "Two Little Brides" at the Lyric Theatre last night. He opened at the Casino and was transferred to the Lyric to make way for the Gilbert and Suilivan company. The the Gilbert and Suilivan company. The later in the season. in "Two Little Brides" at the Lyric Theatre Powers company, intact, will take the road

Florence Malone, who played the leading role of Kate Lenox in "The Talker season, sailed on the George Washington yesterday to spend the summer in Ge Aus-trian Tyrol. She will return to open with The Talker" in Philadelphia on labor Day The company will go on tour with the sam-members as the past season and Tully Mar-shall as the star.

Julia Marlowe arrived from Buffalo yes ORANGE, N. J., dune 15.—Miss Mildred turth Lambeth, daughter of Mrs. William Week. She has improved in health somewhat and expects to sail on the Lusitania on Tuesday with Mr. Sothern.

Taft's 26th Wedding Anniversary June 19.

WASHINGTON, June 15.—The President and Mrs. Taft will celebrate the twenty-sixth anniversary of their wedding next Miss Helen Taft returned to the White absence. During the last week she has been visiting Seabright, N. J., and prior to that she attended commencement exercises at Bryn Mawr. Miss Taft would have been graduated with the Bryn Mawr class this year had not her social obligations intervened.

Benjamin Ulman to Wed To-day. At the Temple Israel of Harlem this Newmark. Mr. Flman is active in the Young Men's Hebrew Association where he originated the Civic Forum

STEAMER BASKETS Filled with Fancy Fruits and Candies L. J. CALLANAN, 41 & 43 Vesey St.

DIPLOMATS OFF FOR THEIR SUMMER HOMES

North Shore of Massachusetts and Bar Harbor Are Attracting Many.

OTHERS GOING TO NEWPORT

tom, to Lenox, Mass., and then make a trip to their estate in Austria.

Jusserand after their visit to Cambridge, Mass., the first of the week, will sail for France to spend the summer in their own home. The embassy will remain in Washington during the summer, but the First Secretary, who will be the charge d'af-faires. M. de la Rocca, will establish his family at Buena Vista Springs in the Blue Ridge Mountains and make frequent trips back and forth.

The Russian Ambassador and Mmer; Bakhmetel have taken a cottage at Newport, where Mme. Bakhmeteff knew all the delights of Belleship more than twenty years ago, when she was Miss Mamie Deale of this city. The Kaiser's embassy will also be located at Newport, but Count von Bernstorff, the Ambassador, will spend the summer with his family in Bavaria, sailing early next month. The German charge d'affaires, Mr. Haimhausen, will maintain a bachelor's establishment, as Mme. Haniel is at their home in Germany.

Mitchell Innes, the charge d'affaires of Great Britain, will establish the embassy with a staff of young bachelors at Moosehead Lake, Maine. They will, however, attend the Chicago convention. before going there. The Turkish embassy will remain in Washington, although the Ambassador," Youssouf Zia Pasha, will make a number of trips to the North Shore, where his son, the second secretary, and Mme. Ibrahim Zia, will have a cottage at Manchester. He will also make some trips through the West. The Italian embassy will also remain through the summer in Washington. The Ambassador and Marchioness Cusants with their daughter, Donna Beatrice, will, sail for their home in Italy on July 4. The Japanese Ambassador and Viscountess Chinda have not yet selected a summer home. Neither has the bachelo

Ambassador from Brazil, Senhor Da

Gama. The chances are in favor of Buena Vista Springs. Senhor Da Gama will make a trip westward, including a visit to the Chicago convention.

The recently arrived Ambassador from Mexico, Señor Calero, will return to his own country for the summer.

The Swedish Minister and Mme. Ekengren and the Belgian Minister and Mme.
Havenith are already established at BarHarbor. The Swiss Minister, Dr. Paul' Ritter, will join Mme. Ritter in their home.
later in the summer. later in the summer.

The Portuguese Minister, Viscound

D'Alte, has gone to his home in Portugal, and the legation is in charge of the Bra-The Netherlands Ministe

Miss Jeanle Turnbull.

NEWPORT. R. I. June 15—Miss Jeanle Turnbull of Washington daughter of the late Col. William Turnbull, U. S. A. died suddenly with heart failure at the home of her cousin. Mrs. Brockhoist Cutting, here this afterneon. She had been a guest of Mrs. Cutting about a week. She was taken ill this afterneon. Her cousin, William Turnbull, who is here, will take the body to Washington for interment.

Plays and Players.

Jimmy Powers closed an eight weeks run June of the legation will be located in Ne-O

The Persian Chargé d'Affaires and Mice and the legation will be located in

MASON LEE On Saturday, June 15, 1912, at the chapel of St. Bartholomew's Churoffi by the Rev. Sidney N. Ussher, Susannel McKee, daughter of Mrs. Timothy F. Lee Lee

MARRIED.

Alexander Tayl or Mason.

MILBANK WEATHERBEE.—On Saturday, Juni Dean Grosvenor of the Cathedral of St. John the Divine, assisted by the Rev. Frank 1. German and the Ray, Henry Lubeck, D. Mary Angell, daughter of Mrs. Edwin Henry Weatherhee, to Dr. Samuel Milbank.

DIED.

BARUCH. Sigmund Baruch, June 12. Services Sunday morning at 10 o'clock. The Funeral Church, 241 West 234 st. (Franch) F. CAMPBELL BUILDING).

DUNN. Suddenly, at Jersey City, at his 11080 residence, 14 Kensington av., on Friday, morning, June 14, 1912, Edward W. Y. Duna. Funeral on Sunday afternoon at 1 o'clock! Kindly omit flowers.

ASSLOCHER -- On Friday, June 14, 1912, Mrs Louise Hasslocher, wife of John B. Hasslocher, 1261 Madison av., solemn requiem high mass will be offered $2. St. Joseph's Church, 87th st. and Av. A. 47 Monday, June 17, at 10 A. M. Intermet, private. AORGAN - Charles Newton, in the seventy-fir year of his age. Funcial at his late home, at Lake Placid, our Monday morning, the 17th inst. at 1::,

UNDERTAKERS.

FRANK E. CAMPBELL, 241-343 W. 254 May Chapets. Ambulance Service. Tel. 1234 Caules